series of Art Nouveau designs. It's a melting pot of inspirations that - whether they are used to compare or contrast - allow the most sumptuous side of accessories to be shown with a modern interpretation. There are the square bags - though with soft-edged corners - with shiny surfaces to be worn over the shoulder or carried, even for evening, featuring chain straps that are almost like precious necklaces. Textures tend to be more tactile and capture the attention with 3D working methods and precious encrustations that really stand out on accessories, such as sandals (with bejeweled heels full of appliques) and sling backs (with upper covered in metallic scales) as well as bottles of perfume that are as faceted as crystals that
